

Colour in the picture of God's good world which he loved, and all that he created:
the land and sea, fish, birds and animals.

Which of these 10 Commandments are about loving God, and which are about loving others?
Colour the 'loving God commandments' in blue and the 'loving others' in purple.

Put God first

Don't lie

Don't hurt others

Be faithful in marriage

Don't put anything in God's place

Respect God's name

Don't steal

Don't envy others

Set aside time to rest and remember God

Respect your parents

What sort of things do you do that God doesn't like? What wrong things block you from God? Draw or write down some of the wrong things we do in the bricks of the wall. These wrong things block us from God.

Connect the dots to reveal God's messenger, Gabriel...

Colour and decorate Jesus' name, which means 'God Saves'!

JESUS

Colour in the picture of baby Jesus in the manger. Who is missing? Who else would have been there? Draw them near Jesus in his manger.

Can you help the shepherds get through the maze to reach baby Jesus in the stable? Spend some time colouring the pictures and think about what it would have been like for the shepherds that night!

How do we share good news today? With a phone or video call? With a text message? On social media? Some people like to share good news using what they wear! Can you design a T-shirt telling people the good news that the shepherds heard about Jesus? What will you draw? What words will you use?

The wise men brought gifts for the new king. They were gifts fit for a king! But ... not all of them were normal gifts for a king, and they showed that Jesus was special. Can you match the gifts with their meaning?

'I am meant for a king, and I am precious. When I am used or worn, it shows that my owner has the right to rule, to be king.'

Frankincense (incense)

Myrrh (oil)

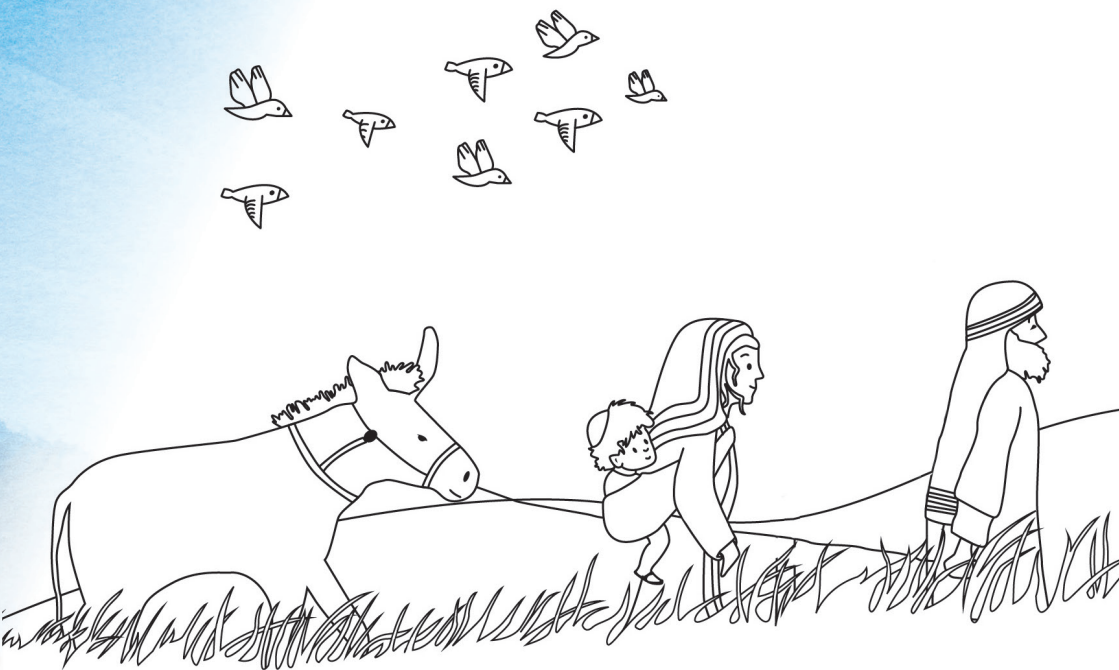

'I am used on people's bodies when they die, to make mummies like in ancient Egypt. I would be a strange gift for a baby king ... unless he was destined to be buried and rise again to save his people ...'

'You will know me from my smell ... which will be smelled in the temple, used to offer thanks and praise to God. I point to a high priest, who is acceptable and pleases God.'

Gold

As you colour in this picture, think about what it would have been like for this little family to have to run away from their home to keep Jesus safe ... and how much they needed to trust God.
